

GENERAL SAFETY

- All apartments are fitted with smoke alarms, fire blankets and fire extinguishers.
- There is a first aid kit located above the cooker in the cupboard.
- Never leave a chip pan or grill pan unattended. Clean grill pans regularly and use tin foil. Never cook food in chip or oil pans late at night.
- Unplug all electrical equipment appliances before retiring to bed at night, especially hair straighteners.
- Ashtrays should never be emptied into bins/plastic bags/waste receptacle within two hours of smoking material being extinguished in them. Before being emptied, please pour a small amount of water into the ashtray. Mixing cigarette waste with other combustible waste matter can cause serious fires.
- Never smoke in bed.
- Clothing or similar items should never be within 1 meter of an electric heater. Do not cover electric heaters.
- Do not push table and chairs up against the heater
- Never disconnect the smoke alarm from its power source (costs up €50.00+VAT may be incurred)
- Close all internal doors when retiring to bed at night and whenever the apartment is vacated as this helps to prevent a fire spreading and provides additional time for the occupant to escape.
- In the event of a maintenance issue arising, please report it immediately to reception.
It is very important to remember 'It is your responsibility to report maintenance issues to Glasán office as soon as they arise'.

Criminals Targeting Students:

Please be aware that even though Galway is a relatively small city and generally a safe place to live; it does come with the problems of city life, such as assault, burglary and theft.

Please be responsible for your own personal safety, the safety of others and the security of your house/apartment when residing in Glasán.

Criminals target students for offences including burglary, theft and assault. Local criminals know Glasán as a student campus and may target the site. These are opportunistic and can identify specific times such as busy social nights, weekends and holidays as their prime time.

It is your responsibility to ensure your house/apartment is secure at all times. In the event of a break in you must call the Guards immediately.

Please ensure your front, back, balcony doors and windows are not left open/unattended during the day or night. Please note that on site security is not an arm of the law. If you are a victim of a criminal offence you must contact the Guards immediately.
